Price: Buyer Enquiry Over $1,349,000

Rateable Value $1,350,000 (March 2024)

A stunning peaceful paradise awaits, nestled on approximately 6.85 hectares of picturesque land. This private, desirable location boasts a serene setting with vistas of Mount Taranaki, native bush, rural landscapes and the sea beyond. A unique lifestyle located within an easy drive to the thriving coastal communities of Okato and Oakura, excellent amenities and popular surf spots.

The immaculate, newly renovated two-bedroom home offers space to unwind. Open plan living flows to a large, covered deck, positioned perfectly to soak up the sun and relax in its tranquil, natural setting. The bedrooms are generous in size and the home continues to deliver with abundant attic storage. Options exist to enlarge the home if required. Thermally broken double glazing has been added and state of the art solar system has been installed allowing your home to have the option of being completely off grid. A log-fire and high spec insulation provides comfort during the cooler months.

A mass of native bush with private walking tracks covers half of the property, while the other half sprawls with grazing land, mountain streams, vegetable gardens and an orchard with a number of flourishing fruit trees adding to the properties appeal.

Escape to your very own piece of paradise, the options are endless.
