

Uniquely Designed And Well Loved

11a Tawa Street, Inglewood, New Plymouth District

Price: SOLD

Welcome to this uniquely designed home, where natural light flows generously throughout the spacious interior.

This charming property boasts not one but, two cozy living areas, perfect for creating lasting memories with family and friends, just like my vendors have. The light filled kitchen is near the center of both living areas and laundry area, while the family bathroom and separate toilet is situated down the hallway near the three bedrooms which offers convenience for busy households.

This well-loved home also features a single garage with ample storage space, making it easy to keep your belongings organized.

Step outside to discover an easy-care section, with mature gardens, providing a serene and picturesque setting.

Don't miss your chance to make this wonderful property your own by adding your own personal touch.
