Embrace The Past, Explore Endless Possibilities

3 Carrington Street, Inglewood, New Plymouth District

Price: Price By Negotiation

Welcome to a piece of history! This charming two-storey, five-bedroom plus home, built in the 1900s, is not just a property; it is a living testament to the past. Bursting with character and stories of yesteryear, this residence is eagerly awaiting its next chapter. Though it does need a lot of tender loving care, the potential within these walls is limitless.

Step into a bygone era as you explore the rich history etched into every corner of this property. The five bedrooms offer ample space for a growing family or the opportunity to create unique living spaces. While this home requires tender loving care, envision the satisfaction of restoring its former glory. Each room is a blank canvas, ready for your personal-touch and creative flair.

This property provides flexibility with parking options. A single garage is available for convenience, and a double garage offers additional space for vehicles or storage along with ample off-street parking.

One of the most exciting aspects of this property is its potential for development. With a sizable plot, there's room for expansion or the creation of additional dwellings. Explore the possibility of subdividing the land to maximize its value and create new opportunities.

In conclusion, this property is not just a house; it is a piece of history waiting to be rejuvenated.

With five bedrooms plus, a rich history, and ample options for customization and development, it presents a rare opportunity for those with vision and a passion for preserving the past. Embrace the character, write the next chapter, and make this house your home.
