

Hide Away Here

144a King Road, New Plymouth, New Plymouth

Price: Price on Application

A few minutes drive north from Inglewood, is a 4.9292ha (12 acre approximately) block, sheltered and peaceful. There is a mix of flat and hilly contour, a small stand of well grown pines, some good hay/silage/grazing country and most importantly this block has it's own water supply. There is a two bay pole shed for storage, hay and shelter, the fences are mainly 2 wire electric and there is a well maintained farm track. If you are looking for that "away from the road" but handy to civilisation type block, this is it, stock management would be easy here. You can open the gate and go to your own hide away, with out even leaving Taranaki. Viewing is by appointment only, call Linda
